Ross Valley Watershed Flood Risk Reduction Program

Corte Madera Creek Flood Risk Management Project – Phase 1

Town of Ross Council Meeting, 10/10/17
Agenda

1. Ross Valley Watershed Flood Risk Reduction Program
   a. Status of Projects Underway

2. Corte Madera Creek Flood Risk Management Project – Phase 1
   a. Benefits to Watershed & Ross – Hydraulic Modeling
   b. Conceptual Design
   c. Upcoming Meetings & Engagement Opportunities
Foreseeable Project Completion Timeline

2023

- Corte Madera Creek Flood Risk Management Project (US Army Corps)

2022

- Corte Madera Creek Flood Risk Management Project – Phase 1 (Phoenix Lake Grant Migration)

2021

- San Anselmo Flood Risk Reduction Project

2020

- Lower Corte Madera Creek Improvement Study

Projects with Multiple Flood Reduction Elements

Bridge Replacements and/or Modifications

Environmental Review Complete

2019

- Azalea Ave. Bridge

2018

- Madrone Ave. Bridge

2017

- Nokomis Ave. Bridge

- Winship Ave. Bridge

- Bridge Ave & Sycamore Ave./Center Blvd. Bridges
CMC Flood Risk Management Project
Phase 1
Existing Ross Fish Ladder and Transition

Existing Condition vs. 2017 Storm Event – Looking across concrete channel from Allen Park, Ross
Existing Condition - Looking downstream along existing concrete channel at Allen Park, Ross
TOWN OF ROSS FLOODPLAIN PARK
DRAFT CONCEPTUAL DESIGN - PROPOSED
Upcoming Meetings

✓ Town of Ross Council Meeting – Oct. 10, 2017
• Town of Ross Neighborhood Outreach – On-going
• Town of Ross Council Meeting – Nov/Dec, 2017
• Flood Zone 9 Advisory Board Meeting – Dec. 19, 2017
• Corte Madera Creek Flood Risk Management Project Community Workshop – Spring 2018
• Program EIR Draft Release – Spring 2018
• San Anselmo Flood Risk Reduction Program Draft EIR Public Hearing – Jan., 2018
Tentative Project Schedule

- DWR Grant Amendment Approval by DWR: Dec, 2018
- Draft Project Environmental Impact Report/Statement: June, 2018
- Final EIR/EIS: Dec, 2018
- Construction: 2019 – 2020
Questions

Sign up for email alerts about meeting sand program updates at www.RossValleyWatershed.org